

this after noon, as we expect to haul peas again to-morrow.
 Band was over to night and says they are so crushed down there he would like us to just haul half of them to-morrow and the others the next day. Dad. and I snowed away a part of the hay this morning while Frank was taking and Dad dug some post holes along by his potatoes as we want to let the sheep in on the pea stubbles soon as we get the peas off so will have to fence in the potatoes. To night Dad. and I drove down town and she went fine we passed and were passed by automobiles at which she never looked, we drove up to Hubby's and down to Aunt's and Dad settled up with Mr. Bagley.

Wednesday August 1st

Charlie and Art come over this morning and we cut half of the Market Garden Peas and Charlie and Frank each took a load down about eleven o'clock. we won't take the rest down till to-morrow morning. Before dinner Dad. and I got the wire over from the orchard to put up along the potatoes. This after noon we hauled three loads of hay off the corner field. To night Dad and Jim drove out to the Shands. Frank went down town to get some cow spray and I went to bed, being very tired, but hot & breezy.
 Another big British & French drive has begun in Holland.
