Monday 22.

Got up at six of the clock; learned my geometry lesson for the afternoon's lesson.

When I went up to the C. House on my way to school this morning Minnie apprised me by telling me that we were to be surprised this evening by a party who wished to have a "nights fun." So we might expect a houseful of people; for whenever there is anything of the