dress. Mrs. Ryan had gone to see some friends so Dorothy and I dished up dinner and she washed and I dried the dishes. Ellie Clarke arrived about 6.30. Charles and I went to church. Mr Jeen, who preached at Gillies Hill in the morning, preached a fine sermon. "Turned a Corner (Jesus Civilization) and met Jesus Christ - Changed the World." "Turn a corner and run into a new idea."

Monday Oct. 17th Beautiful day. Went to the office in the morning and made the entries. Went back after dinner and finished them. Mrs. R. J. Kidd buried today and Charles & Mr. Caldwell attended the funeral. Went to a Public Library Board meeting in the evening.
