Office. Paid a party call at-Mrs. Mairs and then went around to see Mrs. Crosse. Mr. Currie of Iona was here for tea and he and Charles went to the Session meeting at 7 p.m. Mr. Currie left on the late train and Charles got home about half past eleven. Not so bad as was expected. No one of the elders resigned. Session meeting's business completed before Mr. Currie left — the rest of the time was spent in thrashing out as far as possible grievances between Mr. Isaac and Mr.
M. A. Halliday. Mr. Halliday says he will not resume his work in the church until Mr. Isaac apologizes. We are hoping time will bring wiser counsels.
