half past five - having driven up from Harrisburg. Jack McDonald, Margaret, Dorothy and Elsie spent the evening playing bridge while Charles and I went to the first of the Lyceum Concerts - the Harp Singers - which was very good.

Wednesday Nov. 2nd Got up at 8:30 a.m. to call Margaret and Dorothy but went back to bed and Dorothy went to the station with Margaret who went to Chatham. Elsie left about 10 a.m. in her car for Clifford. Took in S. Land and typed an article for Mrs. McDonald on "Political Recall." Took it to them on the way to the office. At noon I took an address for Mrs. Douglas they are going to give them a purse of $150 to-night) and typed it at-
