Another fine day warm and bright. I got up very early this morning and did as much as I could before breakfast & I walked down to Mrs Landon's. we spent a very pleasant day there, and walked home again with my uncle. Martha is such sweet company had a little music this evening. It is raining quite hard. The children are all asleep. I must retire too.