

Friday April 20th

It rained another little shower this morning so we have done nothing on the land to day. Grandpa went down to Auntys again this morning and helped them down there in the garden nearly all day. He got home about four. Dad. and I did chose and Dad. finished the cold frame and this after noon he and Cuah planted it out with tomatoes and cabbage plants. I spent most of the day raking up the lawn and looking after the little chickens. I went down town early this after noon to have Dr. Tomson look at my tooth, the one he filled last has been aching a little the last few days, but he said there was nothing wrong with it unless I had caught a little cold in it. I had tea at Auntys. Aunt Alice is tired out but delighted with the progress of her work in the garden. Tonight Mary and I went to the picture show which was pretty good. I thought. Tom brought back the lantern that Bill Geary borrowed the other night all shined up and a new globe in it. I guess it was never so clean before. Lila come over this after noon while I was down town to get a job for the summer and in that way earn her certifying at school. It is a rather poor idea I think but they are all going to try it and she of course was very excited with the expectation but I was very sorry to hear when I got home that Dad. had dashed a cold water on her hopes and wouldn't give her
