1921

Monday Aug. 22nd — Beautiful day. Had the Whole Lake to myself in my morning swim. Had a second swim in the afternoon and tried to float. Wrote a few pages of "The Haunted Bark-Shop." The fishing party got back about 9 p.m., Duncan & Teddy arriving in the Ford about 6 p.m. I went to the concert in aid of the Building Fund of the Church. Very good — Ruth Bechtel recited "The Highwayman" by Alfred Noyes "The Road to Mandalay" and "Boots" by Kipling. Solos by Misses R. Chambers, D. Engel, Odlum and G. Chambers (Mrs. Warren) & Messrs. Ede, Dodge, Henderson, Shannon.

Tuesday Aug. 23rd — Beautiful day. Morning swim with Charles, Charlie, Jack, Duncan & Tom. Charlie's S.S. picnic arrived. Met the people, did up the two rooms