and alice were to come, too, but could not manage it. Jack McDonald & Wilfred Davison both came to see Margaret and she had quite a time entertaining them both at once. Miss Smart called to say that her father had pneumonia and asked me to go to the office in the morning. (after church in the morning met Milton Tuer with the baby and took the baby in for him.)

Monday Oct. 31st Went to the office all day. Went down after dinner and had to go out to buy a gift for Dorothy to take the shower at Davison's for Elizabeth King. Mr. Ramsey, the new manager of the Bank of Hamilton, was up for dinner Margaret Kastner was in bed
