

April, 1927

13 Wednesday. Clear, cold & windy.
Vernon was plowing this afternoon.
Ella dug along the new garden fence
and planted some rose bushes.
Walter's callers - Geo. Bender, Ed.
Boulder and Sam Thompson ^{and Mr. Dunn}

14 Thursday. Clear and not quite as cold as yesterday. Walter shipped hogs at Elmira. Vernon took 5 pigs and a calf down to Elmira this morning.
They worked at the garden fence
this afternoon. David Horst visited us this p.m. and Noah, Esther & Ruth Miller tonight.

15 Friday. Good Friday. Fine day.
The men plowed the garden. Vernon brought a bouquet of hepaticas from the bush today. Ella was at a quilting at Grandpa's today and Vernon & Walter came down for supper too. Lawrence Dearing of Chesterville, Ont. took us by surprise today and was here for dinner. He & Walter went to Quinn's sale for a while this p.m.
