

Feb 19th 1893.

Sund<sup>y</sup> Very stormy all day, went to Sunday School with the folks, but we were the only attenders, we went to St. Peter's for tea and left there for Church, but there were no one there but us, and on account of the wind that sprang up about that time with such force, unparalled for some year past, we were compelled to remain there all night, alone.

Mon<sup>day</sup>

Very cold wind not yet subsided, and the roads most of them impassable, we had breakfast with Mrs. Carver, Clouding over again and storming.

Tues<sup>day</sup>

Stormy to day

Wed<sup>nesday</sup>

Stormy during the forenoon fine in the afternoon

Feb 23rd 1893.

Thurs<sup>day</sup> 23.

Mild in the forenoon, went with Joe Lane to his brother in search of wood for the factory sitting in for another storm in the afternoon

Frid<sup>ay</sup> 24.

Mostly fine all day

Sat<sup>urday</sup> 25.

Fine in the forenoon, fair in the afternoon

Sund<sup>ay</sup> 26.

Fine in the forenoon, snowing quite hard for a while in the afternoon fine at evening

Mon<sup>day</sup> 27.

Beautiful day and mild appearance of an approaching storm

Tues<sup>day</sup> 28.

Very stormy and disagreeable day, snowing and raining at intervals ending with hail and wind at night

Wed<sup>nesday</sup> 29.

March 1st

Thurs<sup>day</sup> 1.

Very fine day, windy and slightly squally in the afternoon, the a B. getting very much improved