Croton December 1912

Sun Dec 1 cloudy and moderate there was a few of my children to see me there Sarah and Mary and her two youngest and Pearl Hazelwood and two children, and Rose Bolton

Mon Dec 2 cloudy and wet it rained heavey last night and through the day. Maud and Dick was here this morning and Thomas Boltons Carl this after noon

Tue Dec 3 cloudy and cool and dry in to day

Wed Dec 4 clear and pleasant a fine day

Thu Dec 5 cloudy it looks like a storm but none come as yet 5 P.M. Sarah came this afternoon and cut my hair. Bolton was here to day

Fri Dec 6 cloudy and cool there was some rain last night Sarah was here to day

Sat Dec 7 clear part of the day and cold the prospect is of a heavy frost to night I saw several buggies go by that had been to John Blooms funeral on there way home

Sun Dec 8 cloudy and cold some snow this morning.

Mon Dec 9 cloudy and cold it was 20 deg above zero this morning.

Tue Dec 10 cloudy and cool not as cold as yesterday

Wed Dec 11 cloudy and cold it is 20 deg above zero to night

Thu Dec 12 clear part of the day and cold. by the Thermometer it was 18 degreas above zero Charley M.E. Intosh was here a few minits