a poem I typed for him. (Was talking to Mr. Tuer at the Manse Corner when Dorothy came along and she went down town with me) called at Caldwell's to return a Saucer and then we went to the Public Library and I went on down to the office and called on Mrs. Leitch and Mrs. Crow. After tea Charles and I walked down to Charlie's Store so I could try my hat, Charles stopped on the way back and went back to the office and I came on home. Dorothy not.

Sunday Oct. 23. Nice day but cool. Went to church twice and to S. S. Mother was here when I got home from church. Communion Service and, as I am to be away next Sunday, to-day was Mr. Tuer's farewell
