with her brother. Went to church at night and when we came home found Duncan & David Leitch here hunting material for debates. They talked until 11.30 discussing astronomy, philosophy &c. Quite interesting to find out what they think about things. Should like to meet the boys oftener and get to know them better.

Monday Nov. 21st Rather dark day but not to bad. Ripped Dorothy's purple dress so she could have it dyed. Went to the office in the afternoon and made the entries (Dorothy had afternoon tea at Mair's.) On the way home stopped at the Library and helped Mrs. Ferguson make the new books. Spent the evening reading
