

July 17th - Crossed to Puget - in the Puget-Jerry, (now boats) Dund. and began to hunt for a road to the south-shore. Climbed up a tremendous hill only to find that we were in somebody's private grounds. Returned, explored our way, wound around and around a great hill and at last struck the road.
By perseverance and when we were almost discouraged we reached Hungry Bay where we had a delightful bath & found a shorter way home.

July 18th - Had another bath in Hungry Bay &
Tues. began to swim a little. Ice cream.

July 19th - Went shopping in the morning. To Hungry Wed. Bay in the afternoon where Mrs M had a bath while I sat on the Rocks. We then ate four oranges and after returning home visited the English Cathedral which they have been building for some years but which is not yet nearly finished & which is costing a great sum of money. In the evening Mrs Macdonnis went with us for ice cream.
