An Easily Appropriable Hematinic

is an every day requisite in medical practice. Normal blood integrity cannot exist without a relative sufficiency of iron to act as the bearer of oxygen to the body tissues. Pepto-Mangan (Gude) "makes good" this vital deficiency and acts as a dependable and available contributor of iron (and manganese) to the vital fluid.

It was a wonderful day, was the first fine day we have had in some time. Mark & Cecel came & helped John finish drawing in his wheel this afternoon. In the morning after John came from the factory had to go to see about that ditch job & washed them over & went down & pulled the snivors, by the woods Maude's her Aunty Ella went to Ay-liner. I'll be over to see Bobbes. Billy & E's Married 5-
