November WEDNESDAY 26 1919

dark and cold today I traded one of the Webb Coalts with John Blackman for his milking machine two Cine Shells and belts in Office balance of fore noon. Mr George Moore and I started to plaster the Cellar wall on the inside in the afternoon over to Office in Evening

November THURSDAY 27 1919

Cold day. around Village got in the pit of turnips and carried in some wood for the Post Office Jim Simpson brought down the other Webb. Colt. and I traded it with John Blackman for his mare and $60.00 Due June 1st 1920 I chored around in the afternoon closed Office early tonight