

Saturday, October 14

288 DAYS PAST

78 TO COME

Geriatric Aphorisms—No. 20.

Belladonna prevents the griping of aloin by counteracting the peristaltic stimulation of the latter. Much smaller doses of aloin can be given if the belladonna is omitted.

Secondary effects of drugs may act more powerfully upon the senile organism than the primary or desired effect.—Nascher; Amer. Med.

Weather

Temp.

A fine day
Girls went down to see the new Mathews, went for dinner & stay all night, John played Took the little black suppy with them for
Mr Mathews

Maxiah 10½ miles