

Some time ago I bought a team at a sheriff's sale. Later on the mare turned out to be in foal. The man who bred this mare asked me to pay for breeding. As I did not think I was responsible I gave him the address of the agents who were handling the estate. He sent in his claim to them and his share is about three per cent. Now he won't accept this and wants me to pay him.

1. Can he collect pay from me?
2. Could the law make me pay for this service?

T. B.

Ans.—1 and 2. We do not think so.

C. J.

Lien Notes—Breaking Telephone Wire.

1. I bought a piece of machinery