

night and I didn't go back after the cows. Aunty came over this morning to see Dad. and stayed to dinner then got down town again before the rain. I went down to night

Saturday September 20th

Frank went to the mill this morning and took some oats and wheat down for grain. I harrowed with Pommers and Harry all morning and this afternoon till I finished the piece and then I started to sick. Frank brought the other teams out and worked this afternoon. The ground works up fine since the rain which soaked right through. Dad. was able to walk a little today with the aid of canes. Frank went down town to night and telephoned M. Ewen. He said he would be down to look at the rams soon. Leah

Sunday September 21st

It rained nearly all morning but Frank and I went down to Sunday school and church. Leah was very sick yesterday all day and although she was up and about today she didn't feel like going out so there was no organist in church and consequently no music

I stayed down at Aunty's to dinner and spent the afternoon and evening up at the Monteith's, coming home at tea-time to do chores. Ade Millman & his wife were up with the rest of the family in their cottage for over Sunday and they all came over here this morning in the rain but I didn't see them.

Monday September 22nd

Frank and I started in to plow on the other side of the potato patch this morning and have been at it all day getting on fairly well. Dad's leg felt quite a bit better today and he drove Mexico down town and stayed at Aunty's for dinner. I went down to band practice to night

Tuesday September 23rd

Frank and I plowed all day, we spent most of the forenoon striking out the rest of the piece and plowed four lands this afternoon. Dad. walked out to the field this morning and said he felt well enough to sick if Belle came up, but she didn't come. I caught all my white chickens to night and shut them up. I wanted to pick out the cocker. Mrs. Millman, Mita Kathleen, Clem & Mr. Bouyer all come over in Ann's car to night and we spent an hilarious evening of pool.
