

August, 1930

7 Thursday. Hot and very dry. Walter, Vernon and Willard helped to thresh ^{wheat} at Noah Miller's all day. Ezra Maurey was here all day and he stooked the oats in the field beside the driving shed. Walter cut it last night and had his supper at 10 p.m.

8 Friday. Very hot and sultry. Thunderstorms and rain at noon. Walter & Vernon helped to thresh at Enoch Schneider's this forenoon. Ella and the boys brought in the onions today. Mrs. Bowman came here and stayed for the night.

9 Saturday. Fair and cool. Walter went to Elmira this a.m. They were digging post holes today. Bert Hilliard & son Murray were here for tea. Vernon went to Elmira tonight with Irwin Schneider.
