

November

THURSDAY, 3

1921

Drawing turnips in forenoon. Came on rain about noon. Chilled in afternoon.
Lev went home about 4 o'clock.
Melville left this a. m. for near Guelph.
Dull morning, showers afternoon.
Colder and lightening at night.

FRIDAY, 4

Down for chop and got buggy shaft-
fixed and repaired.
Went three up to Three Blue T. owl supper
in Rathway.

Very dirty day, soft snow like rain.
Quite a fall at night.

SATURDAY, 5

Proct drawing turnips. Got sleds in.
Watt helped him with the last load.
Very dirty day but much colder and still snowing at times. We to town at night.
Melville here about three o'clock on his way home.
Looking like winter.
