

Broton May 1902

Sat May 24th heavy rain in the morning light clouds most of the day, not doing anything myself. Belton was here this fore noon. Sarah was here baking and clearing the house

Sun May 25th cloudy and warm, rain this fore noon. Michel tree spoke at our Church this after noon

Mon May 26th flying clouds cold winds and misting rains, a prospect of a frost, was hoeing corn and sugar beets in the garden

Tue May 27th cloudy cold drizzling rain most of the day with strong wind the North, not doing much to day

Wea May 28th clear high wind from the North and cold a light frost last night I was hoeing the garden part of day. Dick was here this evening

Thu May 28th clear and windy a frost last night that night corn and melon plants, I went over and registered my vote.

Broton May 1902

Fri May 30th clear and pleasant I was hoeing in the garden part of the day

Sat May 31st fore part of the day clear and warm, latter part cloudy. I was hoeing in the garden part of the day.

Sun June 1st clear and warm.

Mon June 2nd Showery fore part of the day, latter clear and warm, I worked in the garden in the after noon.

Tue June 3rd a showery day a thunder shower last night again to this evening. I sold some corn for the chickens, and took some papers out of a box the mice was destroying

Wee June 4th clear part of the day, I was working in the garden, there was two weddings in the neighbourhood since yesterday. Ethel Bingham's and Omand Tiffins

Thu May 5th clear and pleasant. I was hoeing the garden. Anne's picture came this Evening