

April 3rd Saturday. Did the entries for Charles. Helped Dorothy make her sandwiches for a tea-dance. Went down town for meat. Went to the Public Library in the afternoon to help Miss Elworthy as Mrs. Ferguson is away to Toronto for Easter holidays. Dorothy had Eva, Fran, Edna, Ida, Pearl, Roy, Douglas, Harry, Wah; Wilfred Davison for a tea-dance. Went back to Library after tea. Busy. Charles called and we went down to Hitch's and got flowers to send to Mrs. Wolford funeral. Came home and after the young folks left - Ding and I put up down and things away. Ah, were my fur coat.

April 4th Sunday. Went to church twice and to Sunday School. Cold, wore my fur coat. Dorothy and Ding only went in the morning. Blanche Gillies' last Sunday. Mrs. Halliday presented her with a "Book of Prayers". Dorothy and Ding went over to Hellington Knop's after church for a while. Charlie and Alice were up after church. Had skating in Paisley rink on Saturday night.
