

- Sun June 3. Fine bright but cold, a slight frost, but not much harm I went to church, morning and evening. Mrs Davidson and I for a walk, some of beans frozen.
- Mon June 4. Fine with dull east wind, washed one flannelette B. Mrs D. changed cistern, a little fire, last of season.
- Tue June 5. Fine but dull and threatening. Showery by four o'clock. Mrs Street brought two tons of coal 14.75 per ton 29.00 there is three tons in bin he says also pile in cellar, fine did not cut <sup>lawn up.</sup>
- Wed June 6. Raining very gently all day, first for weeks did a great deal of good as ground was cracking, but rather late for pastures. cisterns badly in need. Cleaned stove, well.
- Thur June 7. Fine bright and clear warmer, I was in Toronto, St. so nice and warm I varnished kitchen when I came home. Oil cloth dried nicely. Mr Smellie here in evening just as I finished.
- Fri June 8. Fine bright day, perfect day. Annie at Marguerite's Rec.
- Sat June 9. Fine but turning colder with high wind. Annie at her Aunt Lizzie's birthday party. I went there at night.
- Sun June 10. Fine bright day but cool. I was at morning and eve. Church, Mrs D. and I for a walk, Annie here at night.
- Mon June 11. Fine but quite cool. meeting at Park for field day, first lettuce
- Tue June 12. Fine and moderately warm perfect day in Toronto got a navy dress 14.95. ordered. Drive starting for Parish Hall.
- Wed June 13. Very, very, sultry, and came a bad storm about 4 P.M. Mrs James, Agnes and Annie. Ladies laid at Mrs James. 28 in all. A house finished painting 97.—