

DECEMBER

FRIDAY 24

1897

Gold N. W. Wind
I finished hauling
fodder off the orchard
8 degrees below zero.

SATURDAY 25

Fine day.
Mr & Mrs Ripley &
Father & Mother here for dinner.

SUNDAY 26

Cold West Windy
He went to church in the morning and to Mr. Weeses in the afternoon.

DECEMBER

MONDAY 27

1897

Snowed some in forenoon
Mr Ripley and I went to Nominations at Down Mills in the afternoon.

TUESDAY 28

Very Cold and Frosty
12 degrees below zero.
Cleaned some wheat and chopping the forenoon and hauled a load of fodder to H. Hildreth and one for myself.

WEDNESDAY 29

Stormy Snow then Rain
We hauled one load of fodder. Took a great and some chopp to mill
We attended a lecture on Ups and Downs of Life
by R. Ranton last night.