

- Thurs Mar 14. Raining gently most of day, cleared about three. I was in Toronto at H-, went to the measuring social in the evening. Annie came here for the night.
- Fri Mar 15. Fair, mild and misty, very warm, it came a thunder storm and terrific rain about eight, ditches filled. continued in the night. no fire in little stove all week. furnace enough.
- Sat Mar 16. A cold north wind with light snow and blustering. Mrs Bell buried. I cleaned cellar headway, a little fire in eve.
- Sun Mar 17. Fine and quite cold, frozen clean and dry. I went to morning church, for a walk with Mrs Davidson.
- Mon Mar 18. Fine bright and moderately cold. I went to Toronto at Dr Campbell's, eyes, nose, examined, and much inflamed but not to warrant any operation or change in glasses, called at W. Cook's.
- Tue Mar 19. Mild and came a little thunder storm about 4. P.M. I called at Mrs Snellies in the afternoon. sent feather cover to be washed.
- Wed Mar 20. A little light snow until about ten, then cleared and bright. I cleaned. west Bedroom, spare room, and clothes closets drawers, and aired furs. maple syrup $\frac{1}{2}$ gallon \$ 1.15; ^{to Munday's.} took part
- Thurs Mar 21. Fair and warm all day. I was in Toronto. Victoria to see "Buntz pulls the strings" coming home a heavy thunder storm, but did not get so wet.
- Fri Mar 22. Damp and misty then cleared and fine in the afternoon then rained heavily in the evening. I went with Miss Medd to tea at Mrs Nobles and to dentin service. at Annie's at night. I cleaned first part of cellar.