

December

THURSDAY, 1

1921

Done chores and cleaning pens.
Ploughing in ditch in afternoon.
Foggy and dull forenoon. Bright-in afternoon.
Roads very soft.

FRIDAY, 2

Done chores. Brock took down loaf of bread in afternoon to O. B. Henrich to be judged. Then I took him to city train.
He went to Guelph to hear How.
neigher speak.
Very dirty-rainy day and high wind at night.

SATURDAY, 3

I met Brock at morning train.
Choring and ploughing a little on other place in P. M.
I up to school at night.
Colder and rather bright.
