

February, 1927.

17 Thursday. Dull, mild and foggy. Walter shipped hogs at Elmira. Ella helped to quilt at Noah Miller's this afternoon and stayed for tea. Noah brought her home and spent the evening with Walter.

18 Friday. Clear, cold & windy. Walter went to Alma this morning and got a pig for Mr. Gilmore and we butchered it this afternoon. Callers - Earl Miller & Eph. Snyder. Mr. Jake Bender and daughter Ruby spent the evening here.

19 Saturday. Very cold. East wind blowing. Walter went to Conrad Schweinst's sale at Elmira this afternoon. Callers today were - Henry Atkinson, Joe Hall, Louis Miller and Jacob Driebacher.

20 Sunday. Stormy & very cold from the east. We all went to S. School this p.m. A half-witted hobo Charlie Miller by name was here for supper and the night.
