If thou art borrowed by a Friend,
Right welcome shall he be;
To read, to study, not to lend,
But to return to me.

Not that imparted Knowledge doth Diminish wisdom's store,
But Books I Find, if often lent,
Return to me no more.

Read slowly, pause frequently, think Seriously; return duly with the corners of the leaves all straight and clean.

Dancing

Young ladies allow gentlemen privileges in dancing which taken under any other circumstances, would be considered as impudic. It requires neither Brains nor good morals to be a good dancer. As the love of the one increases, the love of the best men and women are skilful dancers. In ancient times the sexes danced separately. Alcohol is the spirit of legerais; or out is the spirit of the dance; take it away and let the sexes dance separately, and dancing would go out of fashion very soon. Ruder dancing is dangerous. Tipping leads to drunkenness, and parlor dancing leads to ungodly balls. Tipping and parlor dancing sow the wind, and both reap the whirlwind. Pub dancing is the Enivables, except the acids, weigh it, and the ungodly

Shown

2 of reason, morality, and religion is "weighed in the Balance and found wanting." The Chief of Police of New York City says "that three fourths of the abandoned girls in the City were ruined by dancing."

"Were I so tall to reach the Pole,
And meet the Ocean with my span,
I must be measured by my soul
The Mind's the standard of the man."

News papers

A good newspaper is the grandest temporal blessing that God has given to the people of any Country. Opinions some times are, that anybody can make a newspaper with the aid of Capital. The facts are that fortunes are swallowed up every year in the vain effort to establish newspapers. It is true, in my opinion, that it was understood, that unless genius and ability was the basis of the undertaking, that the most successful way to make a fortune, and keep it, was to start a newspaper. To publish a newspaper requires the skill, precision, vigilance, strategy, and boldness of a Commander in Chief. To edit a newspaper, one needs to be a statesman, a geographer, a statistician, and so far as all acquisitions an Encyclopaedia.

There is some women who are unmerciful. No love or tenderness can subdue their backslings.
 If every want be not instantly gratified they accuse their husbands of not caring for them, and either vent their discontents in angry words, or worse, relapse into sulky silence. Can you wonder that the husbands of such women seek refuge in places of evil report. A prison is more compassionate than domestic unhappiness.

A fruitful temper will divide
 The Church knot that can be tied.

Clearville Dec 19th 1881

This day has revealed to me, by sentiments expressed in Confidence by an aged Father one who has struggled through life journey to pain & comfort - a home for his aged wife, & children of several Sons & Daughters, that life is a pilgrimage, we may struggle & fight for our children, they grow up to dishonor their parents, seemingly do everything to destroy the comforts of age, and bring grey hairs and a premature grave, as such is the case related, domestic discomfort, instead of domestic happiness, seems to prevail. Remember Sons & Daughters, your conviction will prevail you are slowly but surely murdering your aged & Respected Father

Never swerve in your Conduct - from your honest convictions, decide because you see reasons for decision, and then act - because you have decided.
Let your actions follow the guidance of your judgment and if between them both you go down, go down - It is the only course worthy of a man.

Crossed over the Red River on the ice, just before it broke up. The River was supposed to be 40 feet above its natural level. & shortly after crossing the ice broke up.
& showed plainly the danger we were in crossing. Brother Theodore & Mrs. George Lummeys was with us, got my luggage across in small boat, was taken ill that afternoon & had Dr. Cameron to see me. Met W. J. Gossell & Mr. English on

Sabbath Evening Sep 3/82

This day has been spent under severe trials of sustaining a despondent spirit. Memories by ~~the~~ my precious lost look through the mind and imagination say they are with me only to vanish upon reflection of sad reality. They are visionary phantoms the only succeeding comfort.
Eda & Linnæus went Horse & to the Fairly suffered severely all day with headache at home with Clayton, Mary & Mecca.

Mid first hope, and then despair,
 How sad is life in such a mood.

How sad it is to convene around the grave of the dead, to see the tears & hear the sobs of the overworn stricken and mourning Friends. Only "a little while," John XVI-18. Death is the great Conqueror. Life's activity is only a little while, the sun goes down, and death transforms all.

13 The Spirit departed,
How calm the repose;
The pale lily bloometh
Where fadeth the rose;
But there is no death,
Only transfiguration;
The yielding of beauty
For the glorification.
O God, in that faith
Is the Heart's consolation!

Not dead, not dead;
Only gone to the Giver;
Awaiting the weepers
Just over the river,
Only gone by the fact That the blessed have found
To walk with the Saints
In the City of God.

All over the world there are women who endeavor to satisfy the hunger of their own hearts with the devotion of men who inspire them with reverence and tenderness perhaps, but who fail utterly to rouse in them the deep strong love of which they are by nature capable.

Sometimes before it bursts over their heads men feel the cold dark shadow of the storm cloud which is to wreck their dearest hopes and flood their souls with misery.

My Dear Daughter

The Clouds are gradually lifting over our Home and beautiful Sunshine is dispelling our gloom. How thankful and pleased we all feel over your recovery and our gratitude to our Heavenly Father who rules all things, for His kindness.
Cheer up my dear girl,
let nothing worry you,
you have a happy life before you yet. Be patient and exercise your best judgment and all will be gain at Home,
Happy and prosperous
