

Saturday July 30, 1921.

Roy delivered mail.

In the evening we all went to Chatham and as it stormed, we stayed at Mary Waples till it cleared up, but as we left Chatham we found that the road became dryer as we came out and at home it scarcely settled the dust.

The greater part of the day was fine.

Sunday July 31, 1921.

We all went to Church in the morning and stayed at home the rest of the day.

The day was fine.

Monday August 1, 1921.

I went to the Town Hall, with Charlie Busch on his way to Paw Court, and attended a Council.

and in the afternoon went to Chatham with Harry Smith and home on the 5th car.

Roy delivered mail.

The day was cool and fine.
