

Did not go in. Went to the Bazaar with Dorothy and saw a picture called "The Ice" - not too bad. Worked to aunt Maggie. Did some weeding in the afternoon. Raining all morning but cleared up in the afternoon - hot to hot.

Thursday
July 15th - Paul greeted the Jubilee before breakfast as Mr. Clifton is away on his holidays and Charles cannot walk on the soft ground. Marked the tennis court. In the afternoon went with Dorothy for the mail, (half holiday at office) then to Miss Leslie's to see if she could come to play tennis, then to store to get some Egyptian cotton to make gowns for myself. Charles and I got Mr. Beattie's car and went out to call on Mr.
Robert Oswald, Mr. Hugh Strain and Mr. John Oswald. My first calls in the country - enjoyed them very much.
Got out at McDonald House Corner when we came back and did some shipping as Forward Movement Committee to meet here to night. Did -
