

November, 1926

21 Sunday. Cold. Snowflurries.
We went to church & L. School this morning and were over at Norman Snider's for supper. Israel Thoenaker's were there too.

22 Monday. Cold. Walter helped Ella do the washing this morning and took a load of turnips out to Alma this afternoon. Vernon got a load of wood in the bush and broke the tongue on the sleigh. Emerson, Addie, Marie and Ella called here this afternoon.

23 Tuesday. Lovely day.
Walter & Ella left this morning had their dinner at Grandpa Krauter's, went to Kitchener to do some shopping. We called at Edith's and had tea at Edna's. Walter & his Dad went to Schofield's meeting in Elmira tonight. Vernon brought home several loads of wood from the bush.
