

This copy is provided for the purpose of individual research only. All responsibility regarding copyright and the use of this copy is assumed by the recipient. Further reproduction or deposit in any other institution cannot be made.

Heavy rain snow nearly gone
 John Armstrong & his wife here for dinner Rob David Tennet & old Mr Mcintosh likewise
 Eben Tennet & me went to Adams at night Eben went to S. Innes & brought his horse down went to Innes for the arms & traces of the horse power Ad & Davie sawed bolts col B Day worked at the bolts Do Do Do Do Do in the forenoon Davie & little wat went to Farmersville in the afternoon ad & me drew some wood preached the Revd Mr Sherlock in Caintown Ed drew up bolts to the road I went to Mallery town to Townmeeting Buggys running no slaughtering worked at the bolts in the forenoon then went to Coisties & cut up part of a large cedar & cut down a large pine for joice drew 9 hemlock & ash logs a I helped Rob to kill a Steer in the afternoon John Innes came up at night & we set the snowed & blew at night about an inch 9 drew 5 . 10 feet & 1 . 12 feet of pine logs 10 do 2 15 feet ash logs I went to Mallery town to the Annual meeting of Synecution Coastie was put in President again heavy rain this afternoon the roads is quite muddy 11 thrashed the oats Mr H Davis helped with his horses & Mr Edgless 12 the Revd Mr Sherlock preached a mission sermon in the forenoon Mr Mc Kenner in the after 13 helped Edgless at the thrashing 14 cleaned some oats this morning beat Rob to Geome Tol Reeves hewed Ad Eben me Han-rah & Rob went to Farmersville Wats 15 snowed all day cleaned some oats & drew a load of wood snowed about 6 inches

1892
January	16	h
snow		5
snow	17	e
		pa
	18	se
snow		h
	19	v
snow		is
	20	a
snow		>
	21	v
		1
		a
		c
		v
	22	v
		.
	23	.
		h
	24	.
		.
	25	.
snow
	26	.
		27
		.
		28
		.
		29
snow
		30
		31
		.
		118
		low