

Dec 6th. Cool & partly cloudy ground frozen hard now. Donald and Adger unloaded manure I don't know who will put in on the Shawlensie's they don't want to work up here. The girls got letters today the parcel came yesterday Weekly Telegraph Tuesday and my letters Monday so that is English Mail for 4 straight days

Dec 7th. Frost on upstairs windows. for the first this winter down to about 10 degrees men covered strawberry patch today Mrs Bradt wants to leave tomorrow thought she was going to stay another week

The two new mentioned Mrs Bradt leaving is all her letters don't care papers

Dec 8th Sat. Very cold this am said she don't to 2 at Aldershot. Mrs Bradt leave today. said she might come back about Tuesday and do the ironing.

Having some job to get settled up with Scott. he promised me a cheque today but I did not get it of course he was away. cold tonight did not go

Sunday out any place
Dec 9th Cold + clear girls + Alan went to Sunday school. have just been thinking we have not had a person in for a meal. nor have I been asked out any place to have one since mother left in Sept - alone all day.
