

Sat 25 July 1874

Sat 25 I was working for Simon
Chalmers today. Very hot.
Henry was at about Caroline Coodges today. Maggie Muldoon has been here all the week.

26 Quarterly meeting today
Rev Mr Scott preached.

I went out to the Martine
and the station with mine
Very warm in the forenoon but cool in the afternoon and evening. It looked like rain all the P.M. I love Mrs. Kelly's.

27 Henry cut our rye today.
I bound 121 sheaves.
Mary and I went up to the station in the evening.
Cool all day.

July 28th 1874

28 Binding rye. cool. looks like rain. I bound 123 sheaves in the forenoon and in the afternoon I went down and helped Jno. Ballantyne until it began to rain about 3 o'clock. Got 25 sheaves.
Rained until about 6^{o'clock} ^{about} 1/2.

29 Henry and I went out back in Montague and picked about 76 quarts of blackberries. It was on Wm. Phillips' place that they grew. F. Cook went to 30 I have been binding rye in the forenoon. Finished the rye at 3 o'clock. There was 354 sheaves altogether.

Pretty warm.
