

Some funny natives among the rest. I visited the Turkish ship and walked up the dock to the post office. Jack caught a perch off the end of the dock and as we were coming home we left it at Beach House. Dory much disgusted because he caught. Tom said "Daddy would hit him long enough. Charles and Jack knocked down the wasp nest (on the vic house) and fled to safety in the kitchen.

Aug. 5th - Beautiful day. Jack, Clare, Charles, Dornay, Sunday Frances, Sophia, Margaret - and I all went to church at the Elgin House. The first time I have been at church since I went in Mount Clemens last year. Sat outside in a rocking chair and did not hear much of the sermon which was no good. After church Dornay discovered Marjorie Henderson and her sister had arrived at the Elgin House yesterday and are to be here a month. I went in to see the hotel and we met Mrs. Dugit in the rounds. Wrote some
