

Today
Jan 19th. Left Sunday a.m. for the Bok Tower at 9:40 a.m. out Orange Ave South on Highway No 2. through the Village of Pinecastle & Tall to Kissimmee. the other side of Kissimmee saw the Rochester N.Y. Baseball training grounds. then we had to detour a couple of miles over a rough sandy road. on through Campbell, Loughman & Davenport. three village. to Haines City. only a small place. one big Hotel called Dade Hotel there. next place Lake Hamilton nothing only a big packing house. Next place Ouder. a small place. then Lake Wales. all the way from Haines City to Lake Wales the most profuse section we have seen. the ground is higher and more rolling with a few knolls. - and thousands of acres of grape fruit and oranges. as far as you could see in all directions could see the Bok Tower from here. on arrival had to 25<sup>00</sup> for parking. as the grounds were given to the public by Ed. Bok Editor of Ladies Home Journal (he died about two weeks ago) it was a big brick & granite tower with a carillon of Bells. 71 Bells. they were played when we were there. the grounds were nice, all planted with trees & shrubs.

arrived back home at 6 P.M. = 131 miles.
