

January, 1927.

18 Tuesday. Not very cold. Heavy snowfall. Svingrich Brov called here and brought 2 cows from Walter.

19 Wednesday. Mild. Rained all day. Noah Miller and Walter Adler visited my men.

20 Thursday. Fine day. Eckart Otterbein, Grandpa's hired man took Ella to the station at St. Jacobs this morning and she drove home from Elmira with Walter. Tonight their neighbours and friends had a party for John Schwindt who are moving to near New Dundee next week. Walter, Ella & Vernon were there and had a very good time.

21 Friday. Mild and foggy. Walter butchered 2 beeves here this morning and he and Enoch delivered the meat and took the skins over to Emanuel Bowman's this p.m.
