

Old Mrs. Gilliam died very suddenly this afternoon of heart disease. Sarah & I went to price with preachers. came back & packed berries in horse.

Yues. 10th. Got ready for prayer meeting when Grant and Max came on horseback to barn gate where Nettie was milking & Max helped her carry milk to house. They stayed till after 11 o'clock. Nettie, Grant & Max, I were walking round garden. Sarah went alone to prayer meeting. Edith & the other girls came to the gate home with her.

Wed. 11th. Mrs. Jarvis & Sarah came down in morning. Stayed for dinner. Sarah says Maggie has an offer to teach in Ottawa Normal. Sarah & I attended Mrs. Gilliam's funeral <sup>in afternoon</sup> sermon, preached by Mr. Chirraworth. We sat in choir with Edith. When we came home Jarvis's still here. Sarah nearly persuaded to stay but did not. Intended to come again. Ida & Nettie go to station to meet Laura Jones but she did not come. Leiby she was detained by the great flood at Smith's.
