

Cup 25th / 1892.

Thurs. 25;

Rainy all day with tremendous force lasting from the night previous, being perhaps the largest and heaviest of the season.

Fri. 26.

Still raining very hard but not so be compared with yesterday, mostly by spells. Visiting at Mr McAdoo's to night spent a nice time singing and playing on the Piano. It commenced raining shortly after I arrived there and continued until after I got home about 10³⁰ P.M.

Sat. 27.

Turned out a fine day it being cloudy and misty in the morning but clearing off and being fine the rest of day.

Cup 25th / 1892

Sun. 28

Beautiful all day, being cool and pleasant.

Mon. 29.

Lovely day quite hot in the afternoon.

Tue. 30.

Another fine day, very warm, but a stiff S. East wind was blowing.

Quite calm to night but a little cloudy.

Some not far distant from appearance, the wind shifting. I went and blowing a perfect gale most of the night commencing to rain about 2 O'clock A.M. we had a very heavy shower.

Wed. 31.

Clouded in the morning but clearing off, stiff west wind howling all day quite cool partly clouded to night.
