

June

THURSDAY, 17

(169-197)

1920

Brook finished doing road work in forenoon.

Da setting up turnip ridges. Brook sawing turnips in afternoon and Da scuffling corn.

Cloudy and started to rain about six o'clock. Raining very hard rest of night.

FRIDAY, 18

(170-196)

Chopping and fixing low windmill in forenoon.

Da ploughing in little patch on other place by the road in afternoon. Brook went to Mrs. Trasks at Alma for oats in afternoon.

Showery in forenoon but brightened a little sprinkle again about five o'clock.

SATURDAY, 19

(171-195)

Da finished ploughing little patch on other place and finished scuffling corn in forenoon. Brook cultivating bet 14 ac field near windmill. Then re-sowed & harrowed it in afternoon. Grain was eaten off by cut worms.

Wet & storm at night

Fine and quite warm.