

1920

investigating. (Silly things) after tea I went over to Mrs. Beattie's to see Miss Bridgman, the new High School Teacher who is supplying for her sister until March 1st. Found she was rooming at Mrs. Ann's so Mrs. Beattie and I went down there to see her calling in at the Public Library on the way down. Got our clock back to night (Charles went down for it) He missed it very much while it was gone.

February 8 Fine day & not too cold. Went to church twice (Sunday) and to S. S. with Frank. Charles was preparing an address (Forward Movement) for a banquet at Waltham - tomorrow and so did not go to S. S. I typed some gratulations for him before I went to S. S. I also had to select the hymn slides as Mr. M. A. is in charge. After church Mrs. Inez, Miss Burnley & Charlie and Alice came up. I made sandwiches before I went to church.

February 9. Slightly colder day but very pleasant. (Monday) Opened the letters I got at the office on Saturday and took them down to the office. After