

January, 1929.

29 Tuesday. Cold and stormy. We butchered 3 pigs here today for Ezra Stickney. Callers were - Sam Herst and Oscar Schierholz.

30 Wednesday. Fair with light snowfalls. Walter left after breakfast and went down to Hilliard's with Ezra. They had their dinner at Hilliard's and Walter had his supper at Ezra's. Ezra Stickney called here for his meat and sausage.

31 Thursday. Fine day. Vernon helped cut wood in Peete's brush all day and was over there for dinner. Walter took a load of chopping to Heradale. Ella visited Ella Miller this afternoon and stayed for tea. Vernon came down and got her tonight.
