83 TO COME

The Crucial Test

of the efficiency of any hematinic is the increase of red cells and augmentation of hemoglobin. In the absence of serious organic complications incompatible with prompt recovery, Pepto-Mangan (Gude) always successfully meets this crucial test and is always "equal to the test," as demonstrated by the periodic blood count.

Weather

A fine day Temp.

Girls went to school,
Melba & I went to Mr Brown & got some evidence made.
Stayed with Aunt Bell's for dinner; Melba went for the girls at school.
John played all day
Celine's boy was married to night. Had a large wedding.
