

March, 1929

25 Monday. Threatening & mild.
Colder by tonight. Vernon was drawing wood together in the bush. Walter was over at Sam Bird's this afternoon and cleaned their stables as Sam Bird had the misfortune to have his arm injured
by an engine shaft one day last week.
Ella did the washing & ironing.

26 Tuesday. Fair. Cold wind.
Walter butchered a pig for Arthur Moore today. Ella was at a quilting at Edmund Schmidt's today and these ladies were also there - Mrs. Jos. Kuhl, Mrs. Peter Schmehl
Mrs. Harvey Schmidt, Mrs. Cor. Wagner, Mrs. Jos. Geringich, Mrs. Geo. Maurer and Mrs. Philip Bonn.

27 Wednesday. Fair and milder.
The men tapped 90 trees today. Thunder and rain tonight.

28 Thursday. Fair with cold wind.
The men were back in the bush all day.
boiling sap and drawing wood. Callers - Eph. Snyder & Osiak Bauman.
