

Saturday March 26, 1921.

I delivered mail on the whole route with Dick and Charlie's Gips.

Mr English and Roy worked at cleaning out the cow stable in the forenoon; in the afternoon Roy and Maude and Mabel went to Chatham and Mr English skidded out the strings for the cow house.

The day was fair but the roads were very bad in places.

Sunday March 27, 1921

Mabel and Maude and Roy and Charlie and I went to Church in the morning; the car was late so we walked both ways in the rain.

Charlie went to Baycourt on the 2 p.m. car on its way back from Wallaceburg.

Mary Kemp came here on the 5 p.m. car from Chatham.

Monday March 28, 1921.

I delivered mail on the Bay part and round the Townline with Dick and Charlie's Gips.

The roads were very bad and the day was cold.

Mary Kemp and Maude went to Chatham on the 5 p.m. car
