

gave Loll a pair, sold one to Cousin Clare a pair to Rev. J. H. Johnson and the remaining 3 to Henderson. I gave the cows and calves a good oiling, after dinner Frank and I Did not get much done today but Chon Hattie washed and baked bread, she and Frank went down town to see the

I drove down before breakfast, took Alice to the station and went around by Pickfords on my way home as Auntie told me he was very miserable. I asked Mrs Pickford if she would like me to take the doctor out and she seemed grateful for my offer.
