

to teach me to swim.

July 15th - Went around to Armer's in the Somerset Sat. stage, and went for a bath on the South shore. ~~At~~ We returned by the ferry after having tea at Armer's.

July 16th - Went to the Presbyterian Church in the Sund. morning and in the afternoon walked out to Government house to see the grounds which are beautiful. Part of them are laid out in civilized style while the remainder is left wild and many nice walks run through the woods. There is a small outlook on top of a high hill. We went up and beheld a lovely view.
Hamilton below us and behind us the Atlantic. In the evening we went to the African Church. There was only three white people present; a soldier and ourselves. The singing was lovely, the sermon a muddle and the people polite.
