

Wednesday March 14th

It snowed, rained and froze during the night and has been a miserable, <sup>rainy</sup> forenoon, and although it did not rain after dinner. It has been dull and very windy with the wind off the lake. We just did chores this morning ~~morning~~ but this afternoon Frank and I went down town with Harry and Belle and the wagon and I got some lumber to make a couple of chicken coops to put old hen with chickens in to night. Enoch and I went down to Church and I walked up with Mary and Miss Martin afterwards.

Thursday March 15th

I have spent most of the day working on one of my hen coops but did not finish. Dad and the baby went down to Aunty Alice's to dinner so Frank and I did up the cow stables this afternoon. Enoch went down to see Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Ryser this afternoon. Windy and cloudy all day.

Friday March 16th

After I did chores this morning I worked at my chicken coop. Dad lit a fire in the smoke house. Tom came in walking and said he had been sick all week and that the butter milk can was still at the factory, so
